

Q21. Define active transport. Give examples. (Apr 2018)

Ans 21. Active transport is the movement of substances against their concentration gradient using metabolic energy. Example: Sodium–potassium pump.